Our complaints handling procedure ensures that if you ever wish to register a complaint:

- Your complaint will be addressed quickly, fairly and in an objective and unbiased way

- You will always have the option to raise

What is a complaint?

A complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction made to us related to our products or services, or our complaints handling process itself, where you expect a response from us.

We see every complaint as an opportunity to improve and innovate.

To avoid any doubt, complaints include the following types of contacts:

- Where our customer expresses dissatisfaction and seeks a response or resolution regarding the conduct, action, proposed action, or failure to act by Tango Energy, its employees, agents, contractors or other representatives. This could include if we fail to observe our published or agreed practices or procedures.
- Where our customer threatens to involve, or enquire about the possibility of involving a third party or if an energy ombudsman scheme refers the complaint to us.

How we will investigate and resolve your complaint

Our staff are empowered to assist in investigating and resolving any complaint you may have. We ensure that all complaints are recorded and that all relevant information is recorded when you contact us.

To enable us to resolve your complaint efficiently and effectively we require certain information from you.

First, we need to confirm your name, address and account details. When you contact us, your Tango Energy Account number, invoice number, supply address or National Meter Identifier (NMI) are all useful pieces of information.

We then need to fully understand the basis of your complaint and, importantly, the resolution that you are seeking.

Finally, we will discuss and agree with you what other information we may need to resolve your concern and confirm how and when we will contact you throughout the process until the matter is resolved.

Timelines for resolving complaints

We have confidence that our staff are empowered to resolve complaints at the initial point of contact.

If the matter is complex, or requires information from your distributor or another related party, we may need up to 14 days to fully investigate your complaint.

On some rare occasions, it might take longer to resolve your complaint. If this is the case, the person responsible for investigating and resolving your complaint will ensure that we keep you updated by maintaining contact with you, either in writing or by telephone, until such time as the matter is resolved.

Third party complaints

Your complaint may not relate directly to services that Tango Energy provides, but may involve an external third party, such as your Distributor. We will provide you with reasonable assistance to make contact with any other external third party.

If this is the case, we will provide you with the relevant contact details for your Distributor or refer your written complaint to them.

In accordance with any regulatory requirements, we may also be required to provide your Distributor with any relevant information it may require to resolve your complaint in accordance with our Privacy Policy (outlined below).

Privacy

Tango Energy takes its obligations under privacy legislation very seriously. You can be confident that your complaint will remain private and confidential.

If we need to share your information with any external party, for example, your distributor, we will seek your explicit consent to do so.

A copy of our Privacy Policy is available on request and is published on our website www.tangoenergy.com

Continuous Improvement

Tango Energy has a comprehensive internal process for regular reporting of customer feedback particularly including complaints and analysis of complaints. Regular reports are provided to senior management, the Chief Executive Officer and the Board.

Tango Energy's Board and senior management are committed to continuous improvement and will ensure that all staff and contractors comply with this Procedure.

As part of this commitment, our Procedure will be reviewed annually to ensure that it remains effective, relevant and up to date.

If you remain dissatisfied

If, despite our best efforts to resolve your complaint you remain unhappy with any aspect of our service, you can request that your complaint be escalated to senior management within Tango Energy.

If you remain unhappy for whatever reason, you can raise your concerns with the relevant Ombudsman.

Contacting the Ombudsman

You may contact your local Ombudsman if you remain dissatisfied with our investigation or proposed resolution to your complaint, or if you have any concerns with our management of your complaint.

Your local Ombudsman provides a free, impartial and independent complaints resolution service and will usually expect that you have tried to resolve your complaint with us prior to raising the matter with them.

Your local Ombudsman operates Monday to Friday during normal business hours. Contact details for the relevant schemes are provided below.
